From the Rabbi...

"Are we the sum of what we've crossed off our to-do list? Or are we only what we have left to do?" ~ Kate Walbert

The month of Elul is here. I always approach it with two mindsets. I look forward to the new year and the introspection, cheshbon hanefesh/taking account of my soul, that I will do to prepare. But I also get a bit nervous as to what that introspection will uncover, what I will have to face about myself.

Elul is when we look intensely inward at, as some rabbis say, the "ifs" of our lives. If only we had been more loving, more patient, more hopeful. If only we had forgiven rather than harbored anger and resentment. If only we had reached outward and reached inward. If only we hadn't looked away from another in need. If only we hadn't begrudged. If only we hadn't lied. If only.

"In Elul, before eating and sleeping, a person should look into his soul and search his deeds, that he or she may confess." (Rebbe Tarphon)

I use it also as a time to apologize and ask for forgiveness. And the acknowledgement of where I went wrong and how I will try to get it right the next time - the act of teshuvah/turning back to redo - feel good. It is not an easy process. Sometimes people refuse to accept my apology. And I must live with that. It is the time where I go through my social media and unfriend people who are toxic, those who I never speak to, those who I don't even know.

My friend Rebekah died mid - August. She had cancer, and when she asked me three years ago if I would officiate her funeral, she left me a list of who to call, who to disinvite to her funeral, and what I should say for her obituary. I told her that the funeral was not for her. It was for her kids and grandkids and all of us who loved her. At her funeral, I found that she used the weeks before she died to call those whom she had hurt, and apologized. She left nothing unsaid. Elul is our rehearsal for death. We are given a month to get closure from others.

Out of this introspection there is inevitably some clarity, realizations of what I have learned and can cross off my to-do list. But with this knowledge, I also realize what I cannot yet cross off my list and what I have discovered about myself that I need to add to my list. Perhaps for many of us life is not clearly delineated; perhaps it's one long list with scratches and erasures and ongoing additions and subtractions; one large fluid list that realistically exemplifies our lives today.

If I do the work from my heart, then maybe I'll be ready to "make a joyful noise unto the Lord!" ~ Psalm 66

"I am not what happened to me. I am what I choose to become." ~ Carl Jung

Rabbi Renee

There are many wonderful customs, symbols, and traditions associated with Rosh HaShanah, the Jewish New Year, a time of prayer, self-reflection and repentance.

PREPARING DURING THE HEBREW MONTH OF ELUL

Preparation for both Rosh HaShanah and Yom Kippur (the "Day of Atonement") customarily begins a full month before the holidays themselves, with the entire Hebrew month of Elul dedicated to reflecting on the past year, and preparing to improving ourselves, our communities, and our world in the coming year.

SAYING SPECIAL PRAYERS

Selichot (special penitential prayers) are recited during the month of Elul. A special Selichot service is conducted late in the evening – often by candlelight – on the Saturday night a week before Rosh HaShanah.

REFLECTING

It also is a month during which we are encouraged to study and take time for personal reflection around our actions of the past year and to seek forgiveness from those we have wronged or with whom we otherwise have "missed the mark" in our interactions and behaviors. Many readily available resources can help you make this process interactive.

Cantor's Corner...

🎵 Notes from the Cantor 🎵

You are more familiar with the music of Tz'vukah Pik z"l (1949-2022) than you perhaps realize. He was an Israeli pop singer, songwriter, composer, and television personality. Think of the most popular, most well-known modern setting to the Shehecheyanu blessing that you know.

You are probably thinking about the melody by Tzivikah Pik. Sing along with it here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=-plzCYlhuf4>

The same would be true for an upbeat version of Shema that is sung at every Reform Jewish camp in North America. Sing along with it here: <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=rLWDAevAGBI>

Tzivikah Pik was born Henryk (Zvi) Pick in Wroclaw, Poland, the son of Borys and Paulina Pick. It was already a very musical family, with his grandfather being the head of a music school and his uncle being a music professor, and Zvikah himself was already studying classical music at age of five. In 1957, his family made aliyah to Israel, and Tzivikah studied music at the Conservatory of Ramat Gan. He became one of Israel's leading pop singers and played a lead part in the Hebrew version of Hair. He wrote several award winning songs for Eurovision. Habima Theater wove several of his songs into a musical called Mary Lou, which was later made into a television series called Tamid Oto Chalom.

Tzivika Pik had three children with Mirit Shem-Or, his first wife, and then two other children with Shira Manor. Mirit continued to collaborate with him in writing songs after they divorced. One of his daughters, Daniella, is married to Reservoir Dogs and Pulp Fiction director Quentin Tarantino. Tzivika lived to be 72 and passed away last month. His music continues to be celebrated.

From the President...

To My Temple Family,

Summer is almost over. I hope you all were able to enjoy a vacation to one of your favorite places and didn't catch Covid as a result. If you did get Covid, I hope you had a mild case and recuperated quickly.

I want to thank those who conducted a summer service. Roger Held, the Ritual Committee, the Vaad, the Temple Board, Brotherhood, the Saturday Minyan, Rabbi Renee and Cantor Jason. I want to acknowledge Sara R. C. Schwartz for her creation of our new logo.

Did you know that we have started a new membership level? It is for post confirmation students in 11th and 12th grade. It is not only open to member families but to young people who want to join. The class will be called Be You. Speaking of membership, if you have not returned your form selecting your membership level, please do so right now. You choose which level fits you best.

September is a busy month. We return to clergy led services on September 2. Rabbi's Haftarah Class begins September 6 and her High Holy Day preparation class is scheduled for September 8. Shabbat Under the Stars will be on September 9. We will also be celebrating the B'nai Mitzvah of Sara and Eli Rosenberger on September 10 and the Bar Mitzvah of Shayne Schneider on September 17. Selichot is the evening of September 17 and will be led by the Vaad, in person, at Congregation Beth Israel, Scotch Plains and virtually. The High Holy Days begin September 25.

We have been busy planning for the High Holy Days. We have been virtual only for the past two years, but this year we can gather in person. We will be celebrating in Hatcher Hall located in the St. James school building. There is handicapped access for those who need it and plenty of room to social distance. We are remaining multi-access except for the Yom Kippur afternoon seminars. We have hired a professional to handle transmitting the virtual access so everyone can fully experience this sacred time. The piano is being tuned. The choir has started practicing. Speeches are being written, Torah portions are being learned. I hope you are as excited as I am. I hope you will be able to join us there. I miss seeing you.

Let me be the first to wish you a sweet and healthy new year.

Shana Tovah,

Edythe

STORIES OF UKRAINIAN JEWS: FROM THE HASIDIC TALES TO MODERN DAY EXPERIENCES

AN EVENING OF PRAYER, REFLECTION AND CONVERSATION

Every Rosh Hashanah tens of thousands of Jews descend upon the city of Uman, 130 miles south of Kiev, to visit the grave of Nachman of Breslov. Unfortunately because of the current war in Ukraine the number of visitors will be fewer than in years past. Join us for a Community-Wide S'lichot Program and Service as we prepare for the High Holy Days and share Hasidic stories from Ukraine and the stories of Ukrainian Jews today. We will be joined by Gary Aidekman, JDC Board Member, who will update us on the work that the JDC is doing in Ukraine and the support they are giving to refugees. Learn how we can continue to support the Ukrainian Jewish community during these Yaamin Noraim.

WE NEED YOUR HELP

Please Volunteer: Ushers Needed

For the first time since 2019, we will worship together in person as a community during the High Holidays. This is so wonderful. We will need your help.

The space we will use is quite large, which is great for social distancing. But it has two entrances, which will require additional ushers for each service. If you have never ushered, this is definitely the time to do so. What better way to meet and greet fellow congregants you have not seen for so long, and of course to assist your Temple during the Days of Awe.

Please contact me at bsklar10@yahoo.com to let me know that you will be willing to usher and help with the smooth running of the High Holiday services. Ushering at one service or multiple services, it is all good.

Religious School Happenings

Grades K-2

Grades K-2 is a fun introduction to Religious school, full of games and art projects. Students will learn:

- Hebrew letters & vowels
- Chanting Shabbat Blessings
- Biblical Stories (told through drama, art, and creative presentation)

Grades 3-5

Students in these grades expand their ability to read Hebrew and learn prayers. They also learn history, holidays, Torah, and tradition. Activities range from cooking Israeli food to creating ritual objects that will be used when they become B'nei Mitzvah.

Grades 6-7

Grades 6-7 is a combined Religious School program focusing on becoming B'nei Mitzvah. Your children will learn their prayers and how to chant Torah and Haftarah in a way that is comfortable for them. We have extra tutors and each student will be meeting with Rabbi and Cantor.

Keshet Grades 8-10

When your child becomes a B'nei Mitzvah, their Jewish education is far from over! After leading Shabbat services, they will move up to Keshet, our Hebrew High School program for 8th-10th grades. They will be confirmed as 10th graders. Keshet will involve:

- Torah that relates to peer pressure and issues that students are struggling with
- Discussions of current events, and how we can help this world through a Jewish lens.

be YOU

Be You is a new program created by last year's Confirmation class who couldn't get enough studying with Rabbi Renee. This class is also for any student who does not belong to a synagogue and wants to come together to discuss issues that face high school upperclassmen today. We will be discussing:

- Packing for college—learning how to respond to anti-semitism.
- Learning about the BDS (Boycott, Divest, and Sanction) movement.
  - Widespread groups on college campuses that promote boycotting and not supporting the State of Israel.
- Dealing with all the college stuff, no pressure.

Be You is free for children of members and $150 per year for non-members. Classes and pizza are on Thursday Nights from 6-7:30. Be you in a place that treasures who you are.

Designated Funds Form

Through the centuries, Jews have maintained the custom of commemorating occasions of joy and sorrow by making special contributions to their temples. Contributions may be made announcing joyous events, in honor of special occasions, in memory of the departed, or as an expression of sympathy or gratitude. Temple Sha'arey Shalom has established several funds for this purpose. As many congregants may be unaware of the various funds, we have listed them for your guidance,

Payments can be made by Check (made payable to "Temple Sha'arey Shalom" not the individual fund name), also by cash, and mailed to the Temple office or by Zelle. To speed up recognition of gift email the information to Judy Waller at mrlnwaller@yahoo.com
